Founding member of APCSS retires

The Asia-Pacific Center for Security Studies bid farewell this year to one of its founding members, U.S. Ambassador Charles Salmon.

In an April 7 ceremony at APCSS, the staff commemorated Salmon's 17 years of service as a advisor, diplomat and an adjunct faculty member for courses and workshops.

Salmon joined APCSS in 1996. Prior to this, he was U.S. foreign policy advisor to the commander, U.S. Pacific Command. He also served in U.S. State Department roles as ambassador to Laos and deputy chief of mission in Rangoon, Burma, and Wellington, New Zealand.

12 APCSS employees earn excellence awards

Twelve Asia-Pacific Center for Security Studies employees were recognized at the Honolulu-Pacific Federal Executive Board's 58th Annual Excellence in Federal Government Awards Luncheon at the Joint Base Pearl Harbor-Hickam Officer's Club May 2.

The annual event honors employees from government agencies in Hawaii for their outstanding effort, dedication, and contributions to the workforce and community. Employees' organizations nominated them for these honors.

APCSS award winners for 2013 were:

- Team Excellence: Human Resources Department: Jhonnette Chun; Linda Jimenez; Robin Wong; Larry Fryer; Sgt. Jared Ching; Cpl. Joshua Drummond; and Laureen Kukino.

- Federal Employee of the Year (Professional/Admin/Tech): Jo Gardiner, Strategy & Assessments.

- Federal Leader of the Year: Dr. Justin Nankivell, College of Security Studies.

- Federal Employee of the Year (Clerical/Assistant): Lily Ordonez, Travel Division.

- Exceptional Community Service: Richard Sears, Dean, Admissions and Business Operations.

- Mentor of the Year: Thomas Patykula, Admissions Department.

APCSS Human Resources Chief Jhonnette Chun commented on her team's group recognition.

"It is an honor for the Human Resources Department to be recognized for Team Excellence.

"Even while challenged with furloughs and hiring freezes, we continued to sustain our department's vision to provide elite personnel services supporting our world class workforce."

APCSS Director Lt. Gen. (Ret) Dan Leaf paid tribute to all the award winners.
