

VISITORS

U.S. Ambassadors

Several U.S. ambassadors recently visited, including the honorable Karen Stewart (Marshall Islands), Robert Riley (Micronesia) and Matt Matthews (APEC).

Admiral Scott Swift

Commander, U.S. Pacific Fleet
Spoke to Fellows attending the Advanced Security Cooperation course on April 25th

Gen. Raymond Thomas

Commander, Special Operations Command visited DKI APCSS Jan. 25 for an orientation and met with Fellows attending APOC 17-1.

Maj. Gen. Daniel Yoo

Commander, Special Operations Command Pacific visited the Center on June 12 for a faculty roundtable on Southeast Asia.

Rear Admiral (L) Donna Cottrell

Director JIATF-West
visited DKI APCSS May 15 for an overview and met participants of the Maritime Shared Awareness III workshop.

Ms. Susan N. Stevenson

Acting Assistant Secretary, Bureau of Public Affairs, U.S. Department of State visited DKI APCSS June 29 for a briefing and roundtable discussion.

Lt. Gen. Glorioso Miranda

Philippine Army Chief, Alumnus (EC08-1) returned to the Center on Feb. 1 for a Center update.

Lt. Gen. Datuk Azian bin Md Delin

Field Commander West, Malaysian Army
Visited the Center May 25 for an orientation. He is pictured here with Col. Ron Sargent and Dean Carleton Cramer.

Amb. Tim Groser
New Zealand Ambassador to the U.S.
 visited DKI APCSS Jan. 24 for an orientation and roundtable discussion with Leadership and Faculty.

Amb. Pisan Manawapat
Thailand Ambassador to the U.S.
 Visited June 22 for tour and roundtable discussion.

Amb. Prasad Kariyawasam
Sri Lanka Ambassador to the U.S.
 Visited DKI APCSS Feb. 15 for an orientation and met Sri Lankan Fellows attending the CCM 17-1 course.

International Fellows
National Defense University
 A number of international Fellows from various war colleges and institutes visit the Center each year. Those attending National Defense University visited in May 2017.

Maj. Gen. M.N. Rouleau
Commander, Canadian Special Operations Forces Command
 Visited the Center on May 27 for an orientation and roundtable with faculty.

Air Vice Marshall Alan Clements
Head Australian Defence Staff, Washington DC
 Visited on May 16 for an orientation. Pictured here (center) with Deputy Director Jim Hirai (left) and Ms Gabrielle Burrell, Minister Counsellor – Defence Policy, Embassy of Australia, Washington D.C.

IVLP - Republic of Korea
U.S. Department of State
 DKI APCSS hosts a number of visits by the State Department's International Visitor Leadership Program (IVLP) from places like the Republic of Korea (pictured), Japan, and others.

Ms. Carolyn Bartholomew
Chairperson, U.S. - China Economic and Security Review
 Bartholomew and her delegation visited DKI APCSS Mar. 28 for a roundtable discussion.

Center employees recognized at annual Honolulu Federal Executive Board Awards

Twelve Daniel K. Inouye Asia-Pacific Center for Security Studies employees were recognized for Excellence in Federal Government service at the 2017 Honolulu-Pacific Federal Executive Board (FEB) Awards.

The “Team Excellence” honors went to the DKI APCSS Budget and Supply Division with Lt. Cmdr Robin Taylor, USN accepting the award for the team. Last year, while successfully implementing a new DoD financial system, the Division processed 423 critical purchases and service contracts valued at $4.7 million and also 150 staff travel vouchers. They also processed 600 international Fellow’s debit-card payments, and certified thousands of purchase and travel card requirements worth $6.8 million with zero financial discrepancies. Cmdr James Matthews, head of Resource Management at DKI APCSS, was recognized as “Mentor of the Year.”

“Federal Supervisor of the Year” went to Lieutenant Colonel Donald Peterson for his work as DKI APCSS College of Security Studies Operations Chief. Peterson led college operations in the conduct of 11 courses and 15 workshops and dialogues. These events supported more than nearly 2,000 security practitioners throughout the Asia-Pacific.

DKI APCSS Public Affairs Webmaster and Photographer, William R. Goodwin, earned the “Federal Employee of the Year – Professional, Administrative, and Technical” category. Goodwin provides excellent photographic coverage of DKI APCSS activities and then highlights them via our website, social media and displays. His efforts help tell the Center’s story and shows our value to the world.

Awardees (l to r): Lt.Col. Don Peterson, Michelle Donaldson, Bob Goodwin, Doris Dyogi, PO2 William Reding, Lt.Cdmr. Robin Tylor, Cmdr. James Matthews, Chief Richard Cabag, and PO3 Zeek Granston.

DKI APCSS College of Security Studies (CSS) operations administrative assistant Ms. Michelle L. Donaldson earned the “Federal Employee of the Year – Clerical and Assistant.” Donaldson is a key contributor to the College’s operations supporting courses and providing excellent customer service.

Ms. Doris Dyogi, DKI APCSS

visit coordinator, was recognized with an Exceptional Community Service Award. Dyogi is an active member supporting the Homeless Feeding Program of St. Rita’s Church in Nanakuli. She also funded and sewed more than 100 creative cloth bags, which are filled with toiletries and daily living supplies for the homeless and poor, and then distributed them at local shelters for special holiday occasions.

Awardees

Team Excellence: Budget and Supply Division

- CDR James Matthews, USN
- LCDR Robin Taylor, USN
- CPO Richard Cabag, USN
- Yvonne Yoshioka
- Romanito Rodrigo
- Sharlyn Fahl
- PO3 William Reding, USN
- PO2 Zeek Granston, USN

Federal Supervisor of the Year: Lt. Col. Donald Peterson, USA

Federal Employee of the Year – Professional, Administrative, and Technical: Mr. William Goodwin

Federal Employee of the Year – Clerical and Assistant: Ms. Michelle Donaldson

Exceptional Community Service: Ms. Doris Dyogi

Mentor of the Year: CDR James Matthews

Between November 2016 and December 2017, the Center welcomed a number of new people into the DKI APCSS ohana.

Hails

The Regional Engagement Operations team welcomed Darren Adams who had previously worked at the Marshall Center.

Rich Thompson joined the Information Service Department as an Information Security Specialist. Also new to ISD is Reg Bowie who works in the Network Division.

Technical Sergeant (select) Alicia Clark joined the Travel Office team. Navy Petty Officer second class Zeek Granston joined the Pro-urement and Supply Team while U.S. Marine Corps Sergeant Dalyn Keyes joined the Admissions Division.

U.S. Air Force Maj. Timothy Rawson is our newest military professor. We also had a number of new military senior Fellows join the College of Security Studies including Lt. Col. Michael Artelli (Blue Horizons Senior Air Force Fellow), Lt. Col. Alexander Carter (Army Fellow), Lt. Col. Aaron Martin (Senior Army Fellow), and Maj. Courtland Stanley (Air Force Fellow). DKI APCSS also welcomed its first U.S. Coast Guard Fellow--Lt. Cmdr. Dustin Williams.

Also joining the team were several visiting academics: Lt.Col Brian Bodenman, Seongwan Han, Molly Kihara, and Andy Rothammel.

Farewells

We had a number of people leave the Center over the last year. They include: Lt. Col. "JB" Burgess (CSS/Alumni), Foreign Policy Advisor Brent Christensen, Sgt. Joshua Drummond (Human Resources), Jesse Hall (Public Affairs), Roberta Inouye (Resource Management), and Tech. Sgt. Gilberto Saldierna (Travel Office).

Gone but not forgotten from the College of Security Studies are Maj. Matthew Crosser, Butch Finley, Dr. Van Jackson, Tom Peterman, and Lt. Col. Don Peterson. Military service Fellows departed were Col. John Davis, Lt. Col. Russell Davis, Maj. Katherine McGregor, and Col. Wayne Turnbull. Visiting academics Iris Lienhart and Alice Li Hagan also departed the Center.

Regional Security Studies Intern Program

A number of Regional Security Studies Intern Program participants supported the Center over the last year. They included: Ryota Akiba, Dana Almodova, Sakaria Auelua-Toomey, Kasia Biaspalava, Lydia Eng, Michelle Ezaki, Nazeehah Khan, Hyunki Kim, Petra Kubalkova, Tristan Raub, Marlena Schmidt, Kaley Skates, Luisa Telnov, Jackie Wong, Crysti Woods, and Tsz Kwan Yim.

They are relieved by our newest interns: Logan Brown, Mary Hamilton, Erik Morinaga, Carolina Rivadeynra-Enriquez, Meihua Roy, Sarah Skaluba, Roxane Turner, and Jared Young.

Darren Adams

Maj. Timothy Rawson,
USAF

Sgt. Dalyn Keyes,
USMC

Former Director retired Lt.Gen. Dan Leaf had his official retirement ceremony in January 2017. He is pictured here with the Information Services Division team.

Military Professor and U.S. Navy Commander Jonathan G. Odom wrote several editorials on the topic of Freedom of the Seas. They include: “How Trump Can Make America Navigate Again: How can the next administration ensure freedom of the seas?” for The National Interest and “Managing South China Sea Disputes Through Ways That Are Both Practical and Rules-Based” for The Diplomat.

Dr. Jeffrey Reeves’ article on “New Government Continues Mongolia’s Rebalance to China” was published by The Jamestown Foundations China Brief. In the article, Reeves discusses how a change in government has not resulted in a change in Mongolia’s economic engagement with China as prescribed in their 2010 National Security Concept. <http://apcss.org/new-government-continues-mongolias-rebalance-to-china/>

Dr. Christopher Snedden wrote an editorial entitled “Amanullah Khan: A strong advocate for J&K independence” for Great Kashmir. <http://apcss.org/new-faculty-commentary-on-the-future-of-kashmir/>

Dr. Van Jackson wrote about the changing Asian security landscape for The ASAN Forum. Entitled “Asian Security after US Hegemony: Spheres of Influence and the Third Wave of Regional Order,” Jackson writes that the region is in flux due to low trust thanks to a myriad of territorial and strategic disputes. In his article, he discusses arguments in response to the “next wave of order” problem now facing Asia. <http://apcss.org/asia-security-after-us-hegemony/>

Dr. Alexander Vuving authored a two-part editorial using a fable to explain the South China Sea issue and ‘What Vietnam Can Offer America’, both for The National Interest. In addition, he authored “South China Sea: Who occupies what in the Spratlys” for The Diplomat.

Alumni Perspectives: papers by our alumni

“Mutual Independence: Countering Exclusive Nationalism Through the ASEAN Way” by Capt. Jason Condi, USMC (ASC16-1 & APOC16-1)

“Diplomatic Engagement and Negotiated Agreement Between Philippines and China: A Constructive-Realist Approach in Post-Arbitration” by Ananda Devi Domingo-Almas, DPA (ASC12-1)

“Censorship Regime and Democratic Movement: A Case Study of Hong Kong 2014 Occupying Central Movement and Chinese Internet Censorship” by Jackie (Siu-Hei) Wong

APCSS Course Calendar

* Note: Dates are subject to change. Please visit our website for the most current information.

Course #	Start Date	End Date
Advanced Security Cooperation (ASC)
17-2	21-Sep-17 .....	25-Oct-17
18-1	29-Mar-18 .....	02-May-18
Comprehensive Security Responses to Terrorism (CSRT)
18-1	12-Jul-18 .....	08-Aug-18
Comprehensive Crisis Management (CCM)
18-1	08-Feb-18.....	14-Mar-18
Transnational Security Cooperation (TSC)
17-2	12-Nov-17 .....	17-Nov-17
18-1	21-May-18.....	25-May-18
Asia-Pacific Orientation Course (APOC)
18-1	22-Jan-18 .....	26-Jan-18
18-2	18-Jun-18 .....	22-Jun-18

FY18 Course Managers

Dr. Alex Vuving
Advanced Security Cooperation

Dr. Scott Hauger
Comprehensive Crisis Management

Dr. Christopher Harmon
Comprehensive Security Responses to Terrorism

Cmdr. Jonathan Odom
Transnational Security Cooperation course

Lt. Col. Mike Burgoyne
Asia-Pacific Orientation Course

“The Development of Japan Special Operations Command’s Capability:

21st Century Samurai Diplomats- Ryota Akiba

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR

Director – Maj. Gen. James “Hammer” Hartsell, USMCR
Deputy Director – Retired Brig. Gen. James T. Hirai, U.S. Army
Foreign Policy Advisor – Brent Christensen (until June 2017)
Development Advisor - Dr. Lori Forman

COLLEGE OF SECURITY STUDIES

Dean – Retired Capt. Carleton Cramer, U.S. Navy

Associate Dean, Academics – Dr. Justin Nankivell
Associate Dean, Operations – Col. James Minnich, USA

Lt. Col. Michael Burgoyne, USA – China, Taiwan
Dr. Miemie Winn Byrd – Economics, Adult Ed., Myanmar
Dr. James Campbell – Indonesia, BioSecurity
Dr. Deon Canyon – Crisis Leadership and Management, Global Health Security, Oceania
Ms. Jessica Ear – Human Security, Crisis Management, Civil Societies, Cambodia
Dr. Lori Forman – Development Financing, Development Assistance, Public-Private Partnerships, NGOs
Dr. Kristi Govella – Japanese Politics, Political Economy, Asian Regional Institutional Architecture, Trade & Security
*Lt. Col. Jennifer Harlan, USA – National Security Policy, India, Vietnam
Dr. Scott Hauger – Environment/Science
Dr. Christopher Harmon – Terrorism, Insurgency, U.S. Foreign Policy
Lt. Col. Danny Makalena, USAF – Physical Security Operations, HA/DR, Logistics, Korea, Japan
Dr. J. Mohan Malik – China, Geopolitics, Weapons Proliferation
Ms. Kerry Nankivell – Maritime Security, Strategy & Decision-making
Cmdr. Tuan Nguyen, USN – Military Security Cooperation, India, Southeast Asia
Cmdr. Jonathan Odom, USN – International Law, National Security Law, Oceans Policy, Maritime Security

Dr. Al Oehlers – Economics, Burma, Southeast Asia, Pacific Islands
Maj. Timothy Rawson, USAF–Japan, Air Lift Operations
Dr. Jeffrey Reeves – China, Mongolia, East Asia Security
Cmdr. Kristopher Robinson, USN – Maritime Security; Politics and Economics and Political Islam in the Middle East
Mr. Dave Shanahan – Security Sector Development
Dr. Christopher Snedden – South Asia, Security Sector Development, International Relations
Maj. Courtland Stanley, USAF – Chinese Strategic Interests
Mr. Shyam Tekwani – South Asia, Media & Conflict, Terrorism
Dr. Alexander Vuving – Geopolitics, Southeast Asia, China, Vietnam, South China Sea
Lt. Cmdr. Sean Washington, USN – Maritime Security, Republic of Korea, China, South China Sea
Dr. Virginia Bacay Watson – Science and Technology Policy, Southeast Asia/Philippines, Water Security
Dr. William A. Wieninger – WMD Issues, Security Sector Development
* Lt.Cmdr Dustin Williams, USCG – Maritime Security
Dr. Saira Yamin – South Asia, Conflict Analysis & Resolution

**Denotes a Service Fellow on a six-month or one-year assignment*

---

ADMISSIONS & BUSINESS OPERATIONS

Dean – Richard Sears

ADMISSIONS

Chief – Tom Patykula
Registrar – Pearl Peiler
Recruiter - Terry Slattery
Alumni – John Gasner
Email: AdmissionsDept@apcss.org
alumnidivision@apcss.org

Stay connected with DKI APCSS...

PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Chief – Mary Markovinovic
Webmaster/Photographer – Bob Goodwin
Cover Art/Group photos – Visual Information Branch

CURRENTS EDITORIAL BOARD

Mary Markovinovic, Editor
Dr. Virginia Bacay Watson
Jo Gardiner
John Gasner
Dr. Al Oehlers
Dr. Miemie Byrd
Bob Goodwin
Col. James M. Minnich, USA
Prof. Dave Shanahan

Three DKI APCSS alumni were present at the recent 2017 Chiefs of Defense (CHOD) conference held in Victoria, BC, Canada. Attending were: Papua New Guinea Chief of Defense Brig. Gen. Gilbert Toropo (EC03-3); Bangladesh CHOD representative Lt. Gen. Mohammed Mahfuzur Rahman (TSC11-2); and Fiji CHOD Rear Admiral Viliame Naupoto (EC02-3). The annual conference was hosted by U.S. Pacific Command and the Canadian Armed Forces. The CHOD conference brings together military leaders to discuss regional and global challenges and to promote multilateral cooperation in the Indo-Asia-Pacific.

*Please don't forget to contact the Alumni Division at AlumniDivision@apcss.org
if you have been promoted, changed job positions, or moved.*

Asia-Pacific Center for Security Studies
2058 Maluhia Road
Honolulu, HI 96815